

Building Safety Manager

Candidate Information Pack 2024

About Southwark

We are the largest local authority social landlord in London, managing 55,000 homes lived in by 40% of Southwark's residents. We are home to over 18,300 businesses including iconic London venues and social enterprises and we have a young, diverse and growing population.

At Southwark we are committed to making our borough just and fair and are taking positive action to tackle inequalities. Our residents and communities are our greatest asset and the passion we have for Southwark is shared by millions of Londoners who enjoy our outstanding cultural offer, use our hospitals and attend our universities. Our refreshed borough plan and focus on Southwark Stands Together, (which is our work with Southwark's communities and the council's staff to tackle racism, injustice and inequality) underpins all that we do.

Southwark Council is committed to keeping its residents safe and we are currently expanding our Building Safety Team which manage our high-rise buildings. We are looking to recruit a Senior Building Safety Manager and a number of Building Safety Managers. These roles are critical to improve safety for residents living in high-rise buildings and to ensure that Southwark is complying with its duties under the Building Safety Act. This is a key time to join us and make a real impact on our community's safety.

Why Southwark

Southwark is more than just a borough; it is a lively community with a rich history and a bright future. Located in the heart of London, Southwark is a centre of culture, business, and innovation. From famous landmarks like The Shard, Tate Modern, and Borough Market to the vibrant neighbourhoods of Dulwich and Tower Bridge, our borough is a dynamic and exciting place to live and work.

Why This Opportunity

- Impact: Play a key role in protecting our residents by ensuring their homes are safe.
- Innovation: Be part of a team that sets new standards for building safety practices.
- Community: Join a supportive team where your work directly benefits the community.
- Growth: Southwark is a place of opportunity, offering professional development and the chance to be part of important projects.

Our future

Regeneration and development abound with some of Europe's most exciting and complex schemes happening in the borough. Projects such as the £3 billion redevelopment of Elephant and Castle delivering new homes, parks, leisure facilities and transport links, the future regeneration of the Old Kent Road, Aylesbury, Canada Water and London Bridge Quarter, are being delivered in the borough bringing thousands of new homes and jobs.

The extension of the Bakerloo line is planned to come right through the borough improving transport links and high-quality public spaces, building a sustainable future and again creating more jobs for local residents.

As the largest Housing landlord in London, we're committed to making a real difference to the quality of life for local people, making the home environment cleaner, safer and more modern.

Our Streets for People strategy sets out a bold vision and a firm commitment to improve our residents' quality of life and take action on climate change, by changing how we all travel and use streets in our borough.

Streets for People supports:

- cleaner air
- safer and quieter streets with less traffic and fewer accidents
- healthy travel options like walking, cycling or wheeling
- greener, and more pleasant spaces for our communities to connect and socialise
- a better place for all who live, work, study and visit

Our values

Our residents are at the heart of everything we do and they've helped us form the values that underpin the work of the council. Our values will continue to inform all the work we do across the council and what you can expect from us.

- treating residents as if they were a valued member of our own family
- being open, honest and accountable
- spending money as if it were from our own pocket
- working for everyone to realise their own potential
- making Southwark a place to be proud of
- always work to make Southwark more equal and just
- stand against all forms of discrimination and racism

About the role

Role title: Building Safety Manager

Salary: £51,099 - £58,197 (pending pay award)

Reports to: Senior Building Safety Manager

As the Building Safety Manager you will be responsible, working with the Senior Building Safety Manager, to ensure that Southwark as the Principal Accountable Person is complying with the duties of the Building Safety Act 2022, Fire Safety Act 2021, and statutory compliance, ensuring there is a systemic approach for managing building safety for our high-rise buildings.

This role will also coordinate access to quality information related to the development and maintenance of the Building Safety Case and Safety Case Reports, Building Assurance Certificates for high-rise buildings, and support training for stakeholders.

About you

We are looking for an experienced professional with a strong background in building safety compliance, a deep understanding of the Building Safety Act, Fire Safety Act, and Duty of Care, and practical experience in managing building safety.

A degree or diploma in construction or fire safety is required, and membership in professional organisations like RICS, IFE, IFSM, IOSH, IIRSM, or CQI is preferred. The role requires problem-solving skills, the ability to influence others positively, and excellent communication skills. Compliance with the Council's Equal Opportunities policy, ability to travel to various sites, and flexibility in working hours are also needed.

If you meet these qualifications and want to join our team, we encourage you to apply.
